ARSON SUSPECT HELD BY SHERIFF

Four Jurors Are Selected In Shank Trial

SEATING OF ONE WOMAN IS ALLOWED

Crowds Jam Ottawa Court Room as Hearing Begins

SHANK CALM AND COLLECTED

Many of Venire Released as They Express Opinions

Tentative selection of four jurors was the outstanding development of the trial of Charles Shank on the charge of murder, in Ottawa Monday.

They were Mrs. J. M. Miller, housewife, of north of Gilboa; George Reynolds, retired farmer, of near Hartsburg; A. J. Mullett, farmer, of Monroe township, and William Ruen, farmer, of near Cloverdale.

All are persons of middle age. Mrs. Miller said she had grown children. Reynolds' hair is white with age, while Mullett and Ruen are men of middle age.

OPPOSES CHAIR

Old Steiner, of Riley-twp., was the only man who declared he was opposed to capital punishment. Attorney Melvin C. Light, of Lima, who was examining prospective jurors for the defense, requested that he be allowed to question Steiner, further.

But this Judge Eastman denied, declaring that when a juror said he was opposed to enforcement of the law for any penalty, that settled the matter.

The defense here took an exception to the action of the court.

William Ruen, who said he had read something of the case, declared that if he worked, he would want his money, and declared he would not wish to be treated as Shank said he was by William Tenwalde.

Questioned further, Ruen said that he would consider the case, as it came from the witness stand, and render a verdict, accordingly.

RELATIVE RELEASED

George King, of Palmer-twp., said that he was unable, physically, to sit on the jury. He related, too, that his son, William, was married to Charles Shank's cousin. He was excused.

Others who were excused because they had formed an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of Shank were Mrs. Benjamin Utendorf, of Pleasant-twp., Frank Moramant, of Ottawa, and Clyde Frantz, of Blanchard.

Mrs. August Verhoff, first person called, admitted that she was related to Lawrence Tenwalde, one of the persons killed, it is claimed by the state, by Shank.

W. Row, Ottawa, told the court that he had formed an opinion and was immediately excused. He was the third person called.

Shank, who is charged with the murder of Mrs. William Tenwalde at the farm home near Kalids on September 1, entered the court room, under guard, shortly before Judge E. J. Eastman took the bench. He appeared calm and collected and took no active interest in the proceedings of the court.

SHANK TENWALDE MEET
For the first time since the alleged killing, when Olive Tenwalde and Lawrence Tenwalde, her cousin, were also shot dead, Shank faced William Tenwalde father of the girl who was the husband of the murdered.

Persons called for jury duty are seated and are not permitted to talk to each other or to the court during the trial. During the questioning of the jurors, William Tenwalde and his son Raymond left the court room.

The alleged shooting occurred at the home of William Tenwalde, five miles west of Ottawa, on the afternoon of September 1.

On September 13, when he surrendered after a chase of 13 days, Shank had been out of the Putnam jail but twice, that was during his confinement, until brought into court Monday to answer to the charge.

From his prison cell it was announced that Shank had enjoyed a day Sunday and had partaken of a quantity of food and that his sleep during the night had been restful.

He was up bright and early Monday ready to face the trying ordeal.

FIRE HAZARDS ARE ORDERED ELIMINATED

Four Schools are Inspected by State Officer—General Condition of Buildings Is Reported Good—Fire Drills Praised by Basinger

Elimination of fire hazards at Horace Mann school was recommended Monday by State Fire Marshal Basinger as the first step in the exhaustive probe of Lima schools.

Asbestos covering over the sheet metal heating pipe and removal of coal from the pipe is demanded by the state inspector. Coal has already been removed, he announced.

Purchase of fire extinguishers for the second floor was also recommended for Horace Mann building, the scene of the third school house fire in 10 days.

CONDITIONS GOOD
General condition in other schools inspected is good, according to Basinger who inspected Horace Mann building, Emerson school, Garfield school and Irving school. Fire Chief Mack and School Inspector Mowry accompanied him Monday morning on his tour.

"We visited the four schools this morning and after a thorough inspection I can say they are in good condition," Basinger said after he had announced his recommendations.

Praise for execution of fire drills was echoed by the state marshal. Buildings were emptied of students in from 40 seconds to 78 seconds.

At Garfield school 653 students fled out of the building in 78 seconds. In one wing of Horace Mann school the building was cleared in 27 seconds.

PLAN FURTHER VISITS
Eleven other public schools and three parochial schools are to be visited Monday afternoon and Tuesday. Efforts are being made to complete the work by Tuesday evening.

Data of defects found at schools is being compiled by Basinger who will file his recommendations with the board of education at the completion of the inspection.

No business houses or private dwellings claimed to house fire traps will be inspected at this time, Basinger stated.

BABE NOT TURNER CHILD

Girl Held in Pilcher, Okla., Identified as Another

FORT SMITH, Ark.—(Associated Press)—The child being held in Pilcher, Okla., believed to have been three year old Pearl Turner, missing since Oct. 19, has been identified as Elizabeth Holman.

Identification was by means of pictures brought back from Pilcher of the little child being held there and a picture of the Holman child obtained in Fort Smith from the child's aunt.

By strange coincidence the Turner baby and the Holman child, of nearly the same age, both of slender build, bore several identical scars, both before and behind the ears. The Holman child's hair, however, was slightly darker than that of the Turner child and the little girl found at Pilcher did not have a scar on her body under the left arm, a mark borne by the missing child. This was accepted by the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lem Turner as a deciding factor against their hopes.

Comparison of pictures of the child found at Pilcher and pictures obtained from relatives here of the Holman child also aided in her identification as Elizabeth.

Pearl Turner disappeared about three weeks ago and, when a combing of the mountainside by posers for days, failed to reveal any trace of the child, she became known as the "modern little Red Riding Hood" in the belief that she possibly fell a victim of wolves which infest that section. However, no trace of her body has been found and in the mountains there is still a little hope that she may eventually be located.

Co-eds Quizzed in Fatal Auto Accident Near Chicago

TWO PERSONS ARE KILLED

Eleven Perish in Ohio Traffic Crashes Over Week-end

CHICAGO — (Associated Press)—Three University of Wisconsin co-eds are held in Chicago Heights pending an investigation into the automobile accident near here last night in which two persons were killed.

No charges have been placed against the girls. They were returning to Madison from the Illinois-Wisconsin football game.

Those killed were John T. Murphy, 48, of Chicago Heights, and Mrs. Agnes F. Erb, 25. Two other occupants of the car were uninjured.

The co-eds, Miss Frances Killea of Milwaukee, Miss Katherine Kennedy of Youngstown, Ohio, and Margaret Parganz of Milwaukee were in a car driven by Miss Killea.

According to the story of the girls, Murphy in trying to pass, hit their machine a glancing blow, swerved over to the side of the road and crashed into a telephone pole.

Mrs. Minnie Meade was killed Saturday night.

A charge of manslaughter was placed against Philip H. Harding, held following the death of seven-year-old Joseph Boyagay who was run down and killed by Harding's car, police say, Sunday afternoon.

Harding, it is charged, was driving his car while intoxicated when he struck the lad.

Hunt by police of the driver who struck Miss Elmore Colleson, carried her for five blocks between the bumper and radiator of his car, and then, with the aid of accomplices, removed her from his car and left her to die in the street after having told witnesses he would take her to a hospital, so far has been fruitless.

Miss Colleson, a stenographer, is still in a critical condition.

WOMAN KILLED
LORAIN — (Associated Press)—Mrs. Ethel Fischer, 25, Vermilion, was killed when an automobile in which she was riding collided with a truck on the Lake-ward west of here last night. Witnesses say the truck was parked at the roadside and carried no danger lights.

CITY TAKES ON MARTIAL AIR IN OBSERVING ARMISTICE DAY

Bombs Start Parade as Legion Celebrates Its Big Day

PATRIOTIC ORDERS MARCH

Address of Day is Given by Harry O. Bentley

Veterans of the World War and all Lima Sunday celebrated Armistice Day for the fifth time.

Thousands turned out early in the afternoon to watch the khaki-clad heroes of five short years ago pass in review, stepping with the old time martial vigor.

Ideal weather attended the day, a decided change from inclement conditions on Armistice Day for several years past.

The parade which marked the opening ceremonies, formed at North and Elizabeth-sts. and wound its way thru crowded streets to Memorial Hall, when an Armistice Day program was held.

BOMBS GIVE SIGNAL
Firing of two aerial bombs was the signal for the start.

Major John Blattenburg, marshal of the day, proceeded by a squad of police to clear the way, the procession. He was accompanied by Major Frank Hume and Lieut. Wm. Daley and Capt. Neil R. Folger.

Following came the American Legion drum and bugle corps, a two-time winner at state conventions, resplendent in uniforms of cadet gray, with black helmets and scarlet plumes. They were led by "Pete" DeWeese, drum major.

Marching in open order came American legionnaires and war veterans, led by John Franklin Cover, post commander. More than half of the veterans were attired in khaki of the army, or the blue of the navy. Former colonels, captains, lieutenants, petty officers, buck privates and "shavetails" marched shoulder to shoulder with "Gobs," top sergeants and ensigns.

Colored veterans of the city were represented by Turner Alexander Post, American Legion.

Following came a delegation of Red Cross nurses, the Salvation Army and Ladies' Auxiliary. Then came delegations of school children, civic and fraternal organizations, Battery D, 135th Artillery brought up the rear.

ONE OF THE FEW BENEFITS
The American Legion, and its principles are one of the few benefits that the nation has received.

FARMER MAY BE INSANE, IS BELIEF

William Mohler to be Questioned by State Officers

ACTIONS SUSPICIOUS, CLAIM

Barns on Neighboring Farms Burn in Mysterious Way

Arrest of William Mohler, 50, wealthy Richland-twp farmer by deputy sheriffs may solve the mystery of a number of disastrous farm fires, investigators for the state fire marshal's office, who are in Lima to investigate schools, declared Monday.

The fires to be investigated are the mystery fire at the Allen-co fair grounds some time ago, when the Steiner barn was totally destroyed and the destruction of barns on the farm of Homer Grant, near Bluffton, during the past week.

HELD ON CHARGE
Mohler is held in the county jail on a lunacy charge, there being no direct evidence pointing toward his connection with the fire on the Samuel and Homer Grant farms in the past week.

Mohler's peculiar actions, however, have attracted suspicion to him, and neighbors are ready to testify against him on the lunacy matter. He is to be brought before Probate Judge Hamilton for a hearing soon.

In the meantime George M. Betts of Columbus and Noah Basinger, of Bluffton, deputy fire marshals, are looking into the origin of the fires.

CONFERENCE WITH SHERIFF
They were in conference with Sheriff Harvey Crosson Monday noon and will meet with Prosecuting Attorney Lippincott, later in the day.

Mohler is to be closely questioned and the marshals will investigate the scene of the fires near Bluffton. Mohler's farm adjoins those on which the fires have occurred in the past week.

The charge against Mohler, may be changed from lunacy to arson if sufficient evidence is found, the marshals declare.

Horses, mules, cattle and hogs were burned to death in a $10,000 fire at the Sam Grant farm, a mile southwest of Bluffton Saturday night as reported exclusively by The Lima News. On Wednesday morning a $3,000 barn and grain shed was destroyed in a mysterious blaze at the Homer Grant farm.

WILSON'S FAITH IS UNSHAKEN

Triumph of His Principles Seen by Former President

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press)—A reaffirmation of faith in the ultimate triumph of the principles for which he has stood, was spoken by Woodrow Wilson today, (strong of friends and admirers on an Armistice Day pilgrimage yesterday to his home here.

"I am one of those," he said, "that have the least anxiety about the triumph of the principles I have stood for."

"I have seen fools resist providence before and I have seen their destruction after destruction and conquest. That we shall prevail is as sure as that God reigns."

A little bent with his four years of illness, he stood with bared head, after waving a response to the outburst of applause which greeted him in the first portion of his address he gave to the men of whom he was "proud to remember" he had been commander-in-chief, the credit of "making the armistice possible."

12 KILLED IN CLASH
NOGALES, Ariz.—More than a dozen Mexicans were killed, including one city trustee of Etchebaga, Sonora, and scores were wounded in a bloody clash between police and a mob, according to advices reaching here today. The fight resulted when a crowd of more than 3,000 citizens advanced on the city hall protesting against alleged frauds in a municipal election.

CHICAGO — (Associated Press)—Lieutenant Benjamin R. McBride, 23, an army pilot from R. McBride Field, Mt. Clemens, Mich., was dashed to death late yesterday at Ashburn Field here in sight of 50,000 persons gathered to witness the Armistice Day air meet.

The pilot, known for his ability in handling airplanes, was killed when flying at a speed estimated at about 140 miles an hour within a few feet of the ground. Witnesses said that his controls apparently became jammed when trying to rise and the plane dove to earth.

DRINKING AT UNIVERSITY TO BE INVESTIGATED
MILWAUKEE — Action which according to church workers here, may prove the forerunner of a statewide protest against alleged drunkenness at the University of Wisconsin at Madison was taken yesterday by the Men's Forum at Kingsley Methodist church to curb students drinking were passed.

Editorials in the Daily Cardinal, the university paper, calling attention to the "drunken orgies" attending the annual homecoming football game were the direct cause of the action taken by the Milwaukee church, it was stated. The resolution of protest will be forwarded to the president of the university, the board of regents.

AMERICA HAS NOT FORGOTTEN

Armistice Day is Observed Throughout the Country

IMPOSING PARADES HELD

President Places Wreath on Unknown Soldier's Tomb

(United Press)
America has not forgotten.
On the fifth anniversary of the ending of the world war, hundreds of thousands of boys in khaki, nurses, Salvation Army workers and others who participated in overthrowing Germany's military might joined in parades in all parts of the United States. Millions of citizens cheered them.
At 11 a. m. in every community in the country, all activity ceased for two minutes and people stood at attention in honor of those who never came home from "somewhere in France."
Dispatches to the United Press today told of armistice day celebrations ranging from imposing parades with crashing bands and artillery salutes in the big cities, to simple little church services with sermons on "peace" in the hamlets and villages.
In Washington President Coolidge placed a wreath on the tomb of the unknown soldier. Gold star mothers and other mourners filed past the sepulchre all day. A mile or so away 5,000 people jammed the street in front of Woodrow Wilson's home and heard him—choking with emotion which at times almost overcame him—call the American army of 1918 "The most ideal army that was ever thrown together." He defied those who oppose America entering the league of nations and said "that we shall prevail as sure as that God reigns."

In London King George placed a wreath on the tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Westminster Abbey, while thousands filed past the cenotaph in Whitehall. In Paris, General Pershing stood at attention while his aide put a wreath on the Unknown Soldier's tomb beneath the Arc De Triomphe, while a vast crowd of Frenchmen looked on.
OBSERVANCE AT CAPITAL.
WASHINGTON (United Press)—The national capital observed Armistice Day with pilgrimages to the tomb of the Unknown Soldier and to the home of the war president, Woodrow Wilson.
The services at the tomb of the Unknown Soldier were of the utmost simplicity. President Coolidge placed a wreath as a tribute from the country as a whole. Gold star mothers, veterans, organizations and citizens formed a constant procession that filed past the tomb from early in the morning until the day had ended.
The other pilgrimage was led by a band and proved to be the most imposing gathering so far among the customary Armistice Day assemblages of former President Wilson's admirers in front of his 8-st home.
Senator Carter Glass made a speech and Mr. Wilson, looking pale and drawn, from his effort the night before in talking over the radio made a short but vigorous one, referring to his faith that the international principles he had advocated would ultimately prevail.

KILLING IS LINKED WITH GAMBLERS' FEUD
CINCINNATI — John Mullarkey, 31, is dead, and Tommy Niemer, alleged gambling game backer, is held by police investigating the shooting of Mullarkey at a downtown corner late last night.
A gamblers' feud, resulting from the $9,000 safe robbery at the Nine Mile House, Harrison Pike, last spring, by a band of seven men, is believed responsible for the killing.
Niemer claims self-defense, charging Mullarkey attacked him. Mullarkey formerly was proprietor of Grand View Inn and at one time was an employee of the Nine Mile House.
INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS INSTITUTE IN SESSION
CINCINNATI — Intensive consideration of international cooperation for the prevention of war will be the object of Institute on International Relations under the auspices of the League of Women Voters of Indiana, Kentucky, Ohio and West Virginia, which opened here today. The institute will continue thru tomorrow during which students of world economics will be heard.
One of the speakers will be Dr. Fridtjof Nansen, the explorer, delegate to the League of Nations and winner of the Nobel Peace prize. He is scheduled to speak tomorrow night.

SILENT DURING QUIZ

Man Suspected of Murder Held Under $500 Bond

THIRD DEGREE IS IN VAIN

Police Think Capture Brings Long Hunt to Close

James Smith, negro, suspected murderer, was placed under $500 bail Monday by Judge Neil R. Poling on a charge of assault with intent to rob. Hearing is scheduled for 10:30 a. m. Tuesday.

Police arrested Smith Saturday night in an alley near 236 N. Central-av., where it is charged he stuck up Walter Miller, 17, colored, of Atlanta, Georgia, at the point of a gun.

Description of the prisoner, police say, answers that of Lewis Jackson, the "starper," wanted in Mt. Sterling, Ky., for murder.

Distinguishing features of the prisoner said to correspond with those of the escaped murderer are the ears which are oddly shaped, a scar below the left eye and a knife cut on the body.

Smith was grilling Saturday night by Police Chief Lanker, Detective Inspector Kipker and detectives but maintained a stony silence when questions were directed toward the Kentucky murder case.

Finger prints and photographs were taken Monday and are to be forwarded to Mt. Sterling and Dayton where Jackson is known.

Miller was handcuffed Monday when taken to the photographers to be "mugged." While he has displayed no violence since his arrest, police are taking no chance.

First information that Jackson, the murderer, might be in Lima was received here last September when Police Chief Lanker heard from Police Chief J. C. Tipton, who said in a letter that he heard the murderer was in this city.

ALL SUSPECTS QUIZZED
The city was scoured but no one of the description was taken. Since then every colored suspect has been questioned at the police station.

Police are holding a revolver taken Saturday night when Officers James and Swane captured the two colored men in the dark alley. The suspected murderer claims the younger colored man threatened his life and he was the owner of the gun.

Assault with intent to rob charge under which Miller or Jackson is held carries a penitentiary sentence of from one to 20 years.

ADmits HOSPITAL DISCIPLINE LAX

Division Director Testifies at Veteran Bureau Probe

WASHINGTON—(Associated Press)—Great abuse in the use of contract hospitals was charged today before the senate veterans committee by Dr. L. B. Rogers, director of the medical division of the veterans' bureau. Dr. Rogers declared there had been abuse in the matter of charges for the care of the veterans, the care given them and the food furnished. He said contract hospitals are used when beds in government hospitals are not available.

"Wasn't this practice followed with a desire to have the owners of the contract hospitals profit?" asked John O'Ryan, general counsel for the committee.

"I don't know about the motive," replied Director Rogers "but in many cases there is the desire to please the veterans."

Asked what had become of the officer in charge of the hospital in New England where Director Hines found 80 per cent of the patients were outside the hospital grounds, when Hines visited it, Dr. Rogers said he "has been transferred to another of our hospitals."

"That's the favorite remedy," remarked O'Ryan.

Conceding that discipline in the hospitals should be tightened, Dr. Rogers could not recall that any medical officer of the bureau had been punished for failure to maintain discipline.

Senator Reed, Republican, Pennsylvania, chairman of the committee, interjected that the records show that on last October 11, there were 5,956 patients in contract hospitals where, as the total of vacant beds in government hospitals was 9,212. Only in the case of neuropsychiatric patients was the total of beds available in government hospitals less than the number of patients in contract hospitals.

RUFFALO, N. Y.—(Associated Press)—Six persons, one a woman, were held without bail today in connection with the killing of George A. Stewart, federal dry enforcement agent, in a cabaret Sunday.

Salvatore Pennavia, part owner of the establishment and his brother, Ralph, a waiter, alleged by the police to have fired nine shots into Stewart's body, are being sought. Stewart is believed to have been killed while collecting evidence against the cabaret owners. He was riddled with bullets when he attempted to leave the place.

Stewart's one shot, said to have been fired after the first of the women struck him in the back, went wild. Those under arrest are Samuel Provenzo, associated with Salvatore Pennavia in the ownership of the cabaret and five of his employees.

Provenzo is held on a charge of keeping his place open after legal notices. The others were held as material witnesses.

The woman, Mrs. Mary Corcoran, was the checking clerk from whom Stewart procured his hat just before his death.

ST. GERARD'S ARMISTICE PROGRAM HELD MONDAY

The children of St. Gerard's school, unable to celebrate Armistice Day in a fitting manner on Sunday, had their celebration Monday morning. The exercises opened with the singing of "My Country 'tis of Thee" by all the pupils. This was followed by a stirring address by Rev. James P. Clark, S. S. R., rector of St. Gerard's, former chaplain, during the World War, in the Aviation Corps. His topic was "True Americanism."

The rector told the children that true patriotism, the spirit of real, genuine Americanism, does not consist in words, in the jangling of flags, the shooting of fire-works, but in the carrying out in one's daily life the principles, for which the beloved fathers of our country gave their all. The celebration was concluded with the singing of the national anthem, "The Star Spangled Banner."

POINT SCORED BY MRS. STOKES

Wins Plea for Hearing in Her Divorce Suit

NEW YORK—(United Press)—Mrs. Elwood Stokes today won her plea to have her suit for separation from her wealthy husband heard as soon as it can be reached on the court calendar. It was expected to be reached tomorrow.

Joside Gainsberg, counsel for Stokes, asked Supreme Court Judge Wasservogel to postpone hearing the case two weeks until he could familiarize himself with it.

The court, however, took the view of Samuel Untermyer, counsel for Mrs. Stokes, that Gainsberg was familiar enough with the case as he had handled Stokes' defense a year ago against Mrs. Stokes' suit for dowry rights.

Mrs. Stokes and her mother, Mrs. Emma Miller, were in court today. Mrs. Stokes has blossomed out since winning her defense against her husband's suit for divorce last week, and was wearing a handsome brown tailored suit with a large platinum fur fur.

In addition to $22 in currency and two typewriters, the loot consisted of 48 men's suits, 38 overcoats, 200 yards of silk, underwear, hosiery and jewelry valued at $3,000. The store had been closed for two days for inventory by court appraisers appointed for the firm's assignment.

COURT EDUCATES AUTO OWNERS

Lets Parking Law Violators Off With Warnings

Instructions in the two-hour parking law were given Monday to a large class of traffic violators who faced Judge Neil R. Poling.

Education of motorists instead of assessment of fines is the policy Judge Poling will pursue the remainder of the week in event it is proven no deliberate attempt is made to evade the law.

Four day enforcement of the time limit system already has provided additional parking space in the business district. Merchants before the court and professional men in reporting to police announced they have arranged for parking spaces in vacant lots or else park their machines on streets bordering the business section.

Parking signs are being prepared and these will be placed in position this week. In the meantime traffic officers are "handing out" warnings, which practice will be discontinued as soon as signs are placed on time limit streets.

PLAYWRIGHTS TO FORM "UNION"

To Demand Third Interest in Theatre World Voice

BAR STRIKES IS ONE AIM

Claim Owners and Actors do Not Consider Them

NEW YORK—(Associated Press)—American playwrights have decided to make an effort to wrest from the managers and actors a third share in the American theatre as a means of lifting the intellectual dramatic art. This is the assertion of Owen Davis, re-time president of the American Dramatists and Composers, and now a leading spirit in American Dramatists, a guild of the Authors League of America.

"We," Davis said, "who are the backbone and brains of the American stage, go unnoticed while actors and managers struggle for control of the theatre, and while the stage is permitted to give the public only a fraction of the beauty and artistry it might give if directed by persons of wider horizon and greater intelligence." He pointed out that actors and managers now were arrayed against each other in a fight for control of the stage and that, meantime, both dramatists and plays were given scant if any attention by either of the warring factions.

"In the old days of the American stage the dramatic author was all-powerful and he is even today in many European countries," Davis declared, "yet in this country no one pays attention to him or to the great public of Americans he serves. Five years ago a large number of actors went on strike in New York. They did not consult us. The theatres were closed. Our plays were suspended or left unproduced. When actors and managers settled the strike, again we were not consulted."

"Next June the Actors Equity Association intends to strike for 'an equity shop' the managers will refuse the demand, I know. We, the authors who create the one creative and the all-important element in the situation of play production, will be represented on neither board. We will lose no matter who wins."

"Therefore, the American Dramatists have been driven to take an aggressive position, to demand one-third voice in the theatre, to demand that excellence of the theatre rather than control of it be the most important object for all of us, managers, actors and authors."

"Until we authors are occasionally consulted in the business direction, we cannot hope for a better theatre. If we cannot get a hearing from actors and managers, then as a group we will be forced into active production. But we prefer to avoid this because we realize that the actor or author who becomes a manager, becomes primarily a manager."

"The solution I have to offer is simple. Yet I believe it will prevent haggling over control of the stage and will permit also the production of better plays."

"Let all differences of opinions among authors, actors and managers over ethics, business and other matters be submitted to a jury composed of an equal number of each group. This jury should be able to make and enforce its decisions thru a sort of boycott system. If an actor, manager or author refuses to abide by a decision he will be boycotted by all the rest. This system will prevent strikes; it will do much more than that in bringing into the choice of plays for production on the advice of men who are interested in beauty as well as money."

Mothers!! Apply Common Sense

THIS is the era of the prevention of disease and sensible people do not wait until sickness has actually come before remedying the trouble. The crowded hospitals everywhere are sad examples of the results of neglect. Be especially watchful of children. Restlessness, lack of normal appetite and feverishness usually indicate constipation. Stop it that instant with a spoonful of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and you will have prevented real sickness. Mrs. Ida Williamson of 1637 Pine St., Long Beach, Cal. and Mrs. Lou Browley of Self, Ark., never have illness in the family because of their prompt use of Syrup Pepsin.

A Great Family Laxative
It may be difficult to decide just what medicine to use out of the many that are offered, but it would not be if you knew the facts. There are laxatives, cathartics, purgatives and physics, and they vary in their reaction on the system. Naturally, the stronger the medicine the more it shocks the system, so wise parents never give anything but a laxative to children. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a mild laxative, a vegetable compound of Egyptian senna with pepsin and desirable aromatics, and so appreciated that it is now the largest selling preparation of its kind in the world, over 10 million bottles being used annually. The formula is on every package.

Three Rules of Health
Purchase a bottle of Syrup Pepsin at a drug store and always keep one in the family medicine chest. Give it to anyone from infant to grandparent, for it is safe, and the cost is less than a cent a dose. You can keep a family healthy with just this simple medicine. Give it for constipation, torpid liver, indigestion, biliousness, headaches, colds and other evidence of bowel obstruction. Dr. Caldwell, who was a practicing physician for 47 years, and who originated this formula, had three rules of health that he found very effective among his patients and which you can follow with great benefit: Keep the head cool, the feet warm, and the bowels open.

FACING DEATH BUT UNDAUNTED
Battle to Survey Colorado Canyon Won By Surveyors
THRILLING STORY IS TOLD
Not One Life Lost Despite Hardships and Dangers

WASHINGTON — (Special) — Shooting stern-first in small boats thru boiling, swirling rapids between sheer walls — Plunging into seething reaches of river where the waters, dashing madly against rocks, were lashed into waves 40 to 50 feet high — Riding boats that lunged like frenzied bronchos, sometimes being hurled overboard, sometimes capsize, always facing danger and often death but going steadily ahead — Such is the story brought to Washington by the government party which surveyed the last uncharted stretch of the Canyon of the Colorado.

The party, headed by Col. C. H. Birdseye of the Geological Survey, E. C. Le Rue, hydraulic engineer, and R. W. Burchard, topographic engineer, started from Lee's Ferry in extreme north central Arizona, Aug. 1. Last Chance Rapids, 252 miles below, was reached Oct. 13.

Meantime, torrential rains in the mountains raised the Colorado to flood stage. Grave fears were felt for the safety of the explorers and a searching party was sent out from Needles, Calif. But despite hardships and dangers, not one life was lost, and the only injury of note was a broken rib.

"At noon, on Aug. 4, we reached a rapid that lay between vertical cliffs which rose directly from the water, so that there was no foothold for portage and no chance even to look the rapids over and form a plan to run them.

"We called these the 'Sheer-wall Rapids' and we made them safely, the everybody got wet. We ran such rapids with the boat stern first, in order to steer better. We put on life jackets and lay face down in the boats, clinging hard to the lifelines that were stretched across the deck.

"The waves seemed mountainous, and to meet them this was a thriller. But we afterwards became so used to riding rough water that we vied with one another to make the plunge with lighted pipe or cigarette without losing the light."

Frank B. Dodge, expert boatman who accompanied the party largely in the role of emergency lifesaver, in making one rapid in the canvas canoe upset in one of the swirls, but he swam out, dragging the boat with him and righted it without help.

"On Aug. 10," Birdseye recounts, "the boatman of the party ran the little fleet of four boats thru Boulder Rapids with the more conservative members picked their way thru the boulders."

"H. E. Blake, one of the boatmen, was hurled completely out of his boat, turning a complete somersault and going completely out of sight. But he soon reappeared and caught his boat, climbed in and paddled on thru the rapids.

Man Types Bill That Keeps Own Wife From U. S.
LIMA NEWS BUREAU, ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 12. — When Alfred Reck of Piqua, former secretary to Congressman John L. Cable of Lima, typed the latter's bill providing for the independent naturalization of alien women regardless of the citizenship of their husbands, he little thought that his own wife would be one of the first to fall under the ban of the measure.

Reck left Cable at the adjournment of congress last spring and started Africa he met Miss Dorothy de Marillac St. Julian, of French parentage, and they were married shortly afterward.

The Cable act, as it is known, removed the permission granted women who married Americans to automatically become subjects of their husbands' country. Consequently Mrs. Reck in coming to this country, must arrive as an immigrant and be admitted under the South African quota.

Reck has returned to Washington and will await his bride here. She is expected to arrive in this country before the first of the year. She must go thru naturalization proceedings before she can become a citizen of the United States.

Her husband is a war veteran, and while serving with the A. E. F. was taken prisoner by the Germans and spent several months in a German prison camp.

QUAKE KILLED ALL OF BIBLE PLANT WORKERS
NEW YORK — (United Press) — Yokohama, Japan, destroyed by the recent earthquake, sent out annually for missionary circulation more copies of the Bible than any other city of the world. From the Fukun Printing Co. at Yokohama copies of the Scriptures went out not only to the Japanese empire, but to China, the Philippines, Siam, and all other parts of the far east. The quake destroyed the Fukun plant and killed the entire operating force of from 700 to 1,000 persons. The entire stock of Bibles in depositories in Yokohama and Tokyo was destroyed.

The American Bible Society, with headquarters in New York, has sole responsibility for this part of Japan. To meet the immediate emergency the society has arranged to produce at once on presses running night and day half a million copies of the Gospels in Japanese, reproduced by photography from books in hand at the Bible House in New York.

It has arranged also for a shipment of fastest possible method of hundreds of thousands of copies of the Gospels in English, which are extensively sold in the schools of Japan. It has called to its agencies on the Pacific coast, in China and in the Philippines to forward at once all available copies of Japanese Scriptures.

It has not been possible as yet to make an exact determination of the losses and replacement values. If the plates in Yokohama have been destroyed, as there is every reason to believe, it is estimated that at least $300,000 will be required to rehabilitate the work. An appeal to the public to that end will probably be made later.

REPLY OF BERLIN UNSATISFACTORY
Allied Council Convenes on Crown Prince's Return
FREDERICK CONTINUES TRIP
It's Germany's Business Says Chancellor Stresemann

PARIS — (Associated Press) — A German note replying to the protest of the council of ambassadors against the return to Germany of ex-Crown Prince Frederick William was received here today. The note is understood to be of an unsatisfactory nature to the allies and the members of the ambassadors' council were hurriedly notified to convene this afternoon for its consideration.

THE HAGUE — (Associated Press) — Dr. Kaan, an official of the ministry of the interior, left for Doorn today for a conference with former Emperor William.

PARIS — (Associated Press) — Speaking at Halle yesterday, Chancellor Stresemann said the return of the crown prince, who he characterized as "not the worst of Germans," to his German home, could not be refused. The decision in this case was purely a question of internal policy and one which the German people could not allow to be taken from their hands.

ORDERS PARTY DISSOLVED
BERLIN — (Associated Press) — According to advices from Munich today, Dr. Von Kahr, Bavarian dictator, has issued an order dissolving the Communist party in Bavaria and forbidding publication of Socialist newspapers. The dissolution of putch organizations by the reichswehr is in full swing, it is said.

Adolph Hitler who escaped from the hands of state authorities after his recent unsuccessful attempt to seize the government, stayed yesterday in the cottage of a peasant at Rosenheim, about 30 miles south-east of Munich. Hitler was not wounded in the fighting but injured his shoulder in falling.

HITLER ARRESTED
BERLIN — (United Press) — Adolph Hitler, leader of the monarchist fiasco in Munich, was reported arrested in Starnberg in dispatches from Munich today.

Hitler has been brought to the Bavarian capital, it was reported. Hitler had been gathering his forces in preparation for a new blow, it was reported.

He counted on the sympathy of many people in Munich where crowds jeered the police and reitchehr for putting down his rising. Hitler had succeeded in rallying some forces at Rosenheim and later at Kufstein, the United Press was informed by telephone from Munich. Well-informed persons there doubted that a new putch could succeed if attempted.

Despite the use of steel truncheons and bayonets, police and reitchehr in Munich were unable to suppress disorderly crowds who continued to hoot and insult them today.

Dictator Von Kahr was said to be living in a barracks in Munich in fear of attempts to assault him. Crowds demanded he abdicate his office.

BEHIND-LIKE MOVEMENTS
BERLIN — (United Press) — Like a ghost of the old Germany suddenly appearing here and there and vanishing as suddenly, former Crown Prince Frederick Wilhelm continued his return from Holland to his castle in Oels, Silesia, today.

The crown prince spent last night at an estate twenty miles from Koenigswusterhausen and resumed his journey early today, according to dispatches to the United Press.

(A Central News dispatch from London said the crown prince arrived at Oels today, but this was not confirmed by United Press dispatches.)

It was reported the crown prince visited Field Marshal von Hindenburg for two hours in Hanover, but this was unconfirmed.

He came and went so swiftly in the small towns that there was hardly time for ovations.

At Koenigswusterhausen his party had to stop for gasoline and here the crowds got their chance. The mayor rushed to the garage as the townspeople gathered and hastily rolled out a sonorous welcome, recalling the crown prince's early visits to the town before the war.

TAXES MAY BE CUT $23,000,000
Reductions to be Asked of Congress by Mellon

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — Federal tax revisions under a program applying reductions to the entire range of personal incomes are estimated to cut the nation's tax bill next year by $23,000,000 will be recommended to congress by Secretary Mellon.

Outlining his proposed program in a letter to Acting Chairman Green of the house ways and means committee, published today, Secretary Mellon declared that contingent on the non-passage of a soldiers' bonus bill, there should be for this year and for the next four or five years a revenue surplus above ordinary budget expenditures, including the federal budget charges, of something more than $300,000,000.

This, he said, gives a reasonable margin for tax reduction.

A soldiers' bonus measure, he asserted, not only would postpone tax reduction for many years to come, but would mean an increase rather than a decrease in taxes.

In the tax revision which he suggested to be made effective next January 1, Mellon recommended that taxes on earned incomes be reduced 25 per cent and the rate of normal taxes on incomes from four per cent and eight per cent to three per cent and six per cent respectively. He proposed that the surtax rates be reduced by commencing application at $10,000 instead of 6,000 and scaling them progressively, upwards, to 25 per cent on incomes of $100,000.

Important among proposed revisions which would provide taxation increases were limitation of the deduction of capital losses to 12 per cent of the loss.

Other suggested revisions were repeal of the tax on admissions and the tax on telegrams, telephones and leased wires.

FIGHT WILL GO ON, SAYS WALTON
Pledges His Future to War on Ku Klux Klan

OKLAHOMA CITY — (United Press) — "The fight will go on," Seated in the modestly furnished living room of his executive mansion, undisturbed from its neighbors in the capital's residence section, save by the Stars and Stripes floating from a tall flagpole in the front yard, Gov. "Jack" Walton of Oklahoma today pledged his future to war on the Ku Klux Klan "regardless of the outcome of the impeachment proceedings brought against him before the state senate."

The suspended governor expects to be impeached. His counsel, however, may carry the issue to the United States supreme court.

Already, altho the house board of managers, acting as the prosecution, has completed its evidence in but two of the 22 counts against Walton, the man who told the state employees, "Remember, I am the governor," talks of the possibilities of the count being found against him.

Governor or not, Walton says, he will carry on the fight he has started against the invisible empire.

WILL NOT STOP
Leaning back in the cretonne covered lounge chair, that encompassed his massive frame, the man who startled the nation by his dramatic summoning of the armed forces of his state to fight the Klan, made this simple apology of the act that precipitated his suspension.

"I'm just this kind of a man," he said, gazing reflectively at the ceiling thru a haze of cigarette smoke. "When I make up my mind anything is right, I go ahead and say so regardless. And when I make up my mind is anything is wrong, I go ahead and fight it, and I'm not liable to stop until I'm thru."

"Appeals were coming in to the governor's office by the hundreds asking assistance against masked bands. Local officials couldn't do a thing or wouldn't. I didn't hesitate to use the full powers of the state. We stopped a good many of the outrages, secured four convictions that resulted in penitentiary sentences and 40 or 50 indictments. That's what brought on the present trouble I'm in."

The "trouble" is being thrashed out before the state senate, sitting as a court of impeachment. Twenty-two charges including such allegations as padding pay rolls, unwarranted declaration of martial law, winding up with Number 23, "general charges of incompetency," are to be heard unless the prosecution—a board of managers appointed by the house—decides to stand on a smaller number of counts.

The hearing, continued today, with testimony of witnesses regarding Walton's purchase of his present home, may drag out its argumentative length for a number of weeks. It is believed, however, that it will end abruptly. Once the prosecution satisfies itself that it has created sufficient weight of evidence against the deposed governor, it can rest on any number of counts. The defense then has its turn before a vote of the senate is taken. Twenty-eight of the 42 votes in the senate are required for impeachment.

You Take Cold Easiest When You Are Tired

Medical experts agree that colds can be passed from one person to another but they say that in order to "catch cold" your vitality must be lowered, you must be over-tired, or weakened and run down and your power of resistance below normal. You can keep free from colds by keeping your strength up and no better tonic food medicine for this purpose than Father John's Medicine is known. It will enable you to throw off a cold and rebuild your health and strength because it is made of pure food elements which strengthen and build up new resisting power. Father John's Medicine has had over sixty-eight years of success for colds, coughs and body building.

CHATS WITH YOUR GAS MAN

No matter how good our service is, there is usually one man on the block who is forever finding fault with it. You know the man we mean. He is a good fellow at heart and talks sanely enough upon other subjects, but when he discusses this company's service he loses his balance completely.

What we regret most, however, is not that this man is sore against us, but that his attacks are permitted to go unchallenged by his friends who are also our friends.

In other words, you and hundreds of other satisfied customers in the same neighborhood take good service for granted, accept it, and say nothing about it. Your silence thus becomes his golden opportunity. With lips sealed, you innocently give him an encouraging slap on the back.

We value your good will, everyone's good will. This company is your company, the public's company. Now let us work together to convert this man from a knocker into a booster.

A FRIENDLY TIP

POLITICAL parties are oftentimes like a large family; in fact, they are large families. And it isn't always that all of the members of the family are able to agree on all questions that come up. Political parties always have been in that sort of dilemma ever since the first organization was perfected.

Hence, a condition existing in the Democratic family right now is nothing new. But there is only one remedy. It must be made a case of give and take—forgive and forget. That is the way peace and harmony is restored under a family roof tree when discord flares.

There never has been an official elected, in this or any other state, who was able to satisfy all the people—and there never will be. Governor Donahey, thru distribution of patronage or other acts, has unfortunately divided the Democratic family in Ohio. How seriously, it cannot be told at this time; but the party in the state is a house divided against itself, nevertheless.

There has been a great deal of talk about primary opposition for Gov. Donahey next year. It's foolishness. The party must stand or fall by the present incumbent. If Donahey is defeated in the primary, his party will stand about as much show in the election as a snowball in a hot oven. If other candidates are entered and the governor should win, the party will continue divided and defeat in the election is assured.

Vic Donahey is the only hope of the Democratic party in Ohio for governor next year. Many there are who don't like it, but they cannot get around the fact. Application of the yardstick of common sense and the rule of reason brings the same result.

MAN HUNTERS

THE Royal Canadian Mounted Police celebrate. It's just 50 years since the founding of this celebrated law-and-order outfit. Movies and fiction have made them famous, deservedly so.

It's said of the "Mounties": "They never come back without their man." A case is even on record where one of them walked into Regina headquarters with his prisoner after a 30-years' chase.

Cost a lot of money, yes. But it was worth it, if only for its psychological effect. News of such exploits spreads all thru the Far North.

When the Royal Mounted were organized in 1873, Indians were carrying on a feud with the soldiers, who wore blue uniforms. To impress the Indians that they were not soldiers, the Mounted decided to wear red coats—and still do.

The red coats made excellent targets. Indians naturally decided that the wearers must be fearless—just as our Indians respected the frontiersmen who let their hair grow long to indicate they weren't afraid of being scalped.

Respect for the law begins with respect for law enforcers. The life of a Royal Mounted member is not all gun-play. He explores for his government, makes maps, sounds rivers and lakes, investigates mineral formations. He watches for forest fires in his district and helps fight them. He tells settlers how to farm scientifically. Arriving during an epidemic, he turns out to be an able doctor.

All around, the Royal Mounted are more active in the fields of peace than in playing Sherlock Holmes in the country of musk and caribou.

THE CRADLE OF MANKIND

A NIMAL life first appeared on earth in the Gobi desert of China, according to scientific theory. That theory has been proved by the recent excavations, claims the archaeologist, R. C. Andrews. He believes that the diggers will unearth skeletons of pre-historic men which would make the Gobi desert the most probable cradle of the human race.

For every scientist who is investigating the ultimate destination of humanity, there are hundreds trying to discover where mankind started. They can't dig up the Hereafter with a shovel, and any outsider who tries is a fraud and humbug.

The city hunters get shot at so much in the woods it must make them feel they are at home.

What makes us laugh out loud is seeing a girl with bobbed hair one day and long hair the next.

One of the sad things about putting the bus away for winter, is that dear wife begins noticing what is needed in the house. So to my barber's, but he is busy, and will use the Gillette for a scape in lieu of a trim. On the street, saw Dr. E. G. Burton and McCabe Howe. ## FIXING THE GUILT

It should be cheering to know that the recent experience of life insurance companies rather strengthens the belief that a person over 30 and a wee trifle underweight, that is, under the average weight for one of his age and height, has a longer lease on life than he would have if he were nice and plump.

Anyhow, without a trace of sympathy for 'em I feel in duty bound to remind all fat folks over 30 of the wise saying of one Luigi Cornaro, who lived 102 years, 400 years ago—a tremendous achievement in that short lived day—that "he who would eat much must eat little." Meaning 'understand, that if an average life span were one week and you wished to last right thru to Saturday night you'd leave the table 20 times at least. Cornaro tore that one off in the most casual manner, and here I've been studying the same problem and the best I have been able to do is "whoever is too fat overeats." Cornaro's epigram makes 'em think and mine just makes 'em mad. His stuff is wisdom; mine is sarcasm.

All right then, as you will, but I tell you frankly that I am a Turk in my admiration of fat even tho I know it is a sad mistake from the hygienic point of view. It is because I find fat folks easier to look at than thin ones that I say and do all I can to keep the fat ones with us longer. Indeed, if I had my way about it, we should punish every overweight individual who fails to attain the age of 80 years.

Obesity is an insidious degeneration which creeps over the victim unaware. Ten, 15, 20, 30 pounds too much, one fondly attributes to "good digestion" or fine health or the climate or something as fatuous.

REMEMBERED DAYS

We count our joys by days which have passed.
To memory some treasured things.
And from the cradle to the grave
To what was best we fondly cling.

The mind is linked unto the past
By what was born of weal or woe,
For all men cherish to the last
The joys which have been theirs to know.

Still lives the day the babe was born,
Still lives the day a loved one died;
A wedding garment, old and worn,
Recalls the mother as a bride.

These are the shining marks of Time
The days we smiled, the days we wept,
And by them, as we upward climb,
The ledger of our years is kept.

The common days are soon forgot,
Sharply the mind must be impressed;
Much comes which we remember not,
We keep but what was worst or best.

But now and then we catch a hint
Of life's real beauty, and are glad,
And of it Memory makes a print,
As proof of joys which we have had.

Not lost are joys so swiftly sped,
Nor lost the loved ones long at rest,
With us the past still fares ahead
While memory clings to what was best.

THIS LITTLE WORLD

SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO. — (Special)—While cafes, calarets and other adjuncts of the once brilliantly lighted night life of San Francisco fall before the dry era, a former habit of the pleasure seekers is returning.

That is the habit of "first nighting." In the old days, declares a local theater man, opening plays always had some 200 or 300 regular "first nighters" who reserved their seats by the season and who would sooner miss dinner than an opening performance.

But the war broke in upon the habit, says this man, and the old "first nighters" look more to cards, dancing, auto parties and such, than being first in when the curtain went up.

North Beach resorts are the latest to feel the power of prohibition. There, in the heart of Little Italy, where wine drinking is considered as much—or more—a necessary ritual as washing the face, cafes served liquor more or less openly long after the downtown cafes sold it not at all, or sub rosa.

Now Volstead's forces have invaded this territory too, and many of the Italian families, who joined the long list of darkened rooms which once housed such famous places as the old Poodle Dog, the Oyster Loaf, the Black Cat, "Spider" Kelly's, the Midnight Folies and the Pup.

Chico, Calif., claims the latest in "showers."

The dainty trousseau shower for the bride-to-be, the linen shower at the first house warming, and others, pale before the march of 20th century mechanics.

In their place comes the auto parts shower. It was inaugurated here recently when a member of the high school faculty bought a new car, and was tendered a party to honor the occasion. Each guest brought an auto accessory as a gift.

Hot dog stands and campers had best give wide berth to Atherton, Calif., latest incorporated million-acre colony of the peninsula.

They are deemed inconsistent with Atherton's homes and scenery. Also with its inhabitants, composed mainly of golfers, polo players and others whose names appear in Society's Bradstreet.

The chief of police has issued the ultimatum.

Oakland police and officials are up in arms over those who seek reconciliation with their angry mates via the "fake suicide" route.

"Usually it's a wife who uses this means to bring back a husband, rather than a husband who uses it for the effect on his wife," declares Commissioner Frank Colburn. "Every case entails an expense to the city, time of the ambulance, officers and stewards, and it's time this practice was stopped by punishing those who make use of it."

SOLVING THE BREAKFAST PROBLEM

Breakfast is the big problem these chilly mornings when the children must get off to school and Daddy must make a quick getaway to office or store. The problem is easily solved with Shredded Wheat Biscuit. It is ready-cooked and ready-to-eat. Two of these crisp, tasty little loaves of baked whole wheat with milk make a nourishing, satisfying meal—and they are just as good for lunch and dinner as for breakfast. For a warm, nourishing dish pour hot milk over the Biscuit, adding a little cream and a little salt.

The case is the flapper invasion of the once sacred precincts of smoking cars.

CAN HEAR CHURCH BELLS NOW

This Lady Was Becoming More Deaf Daily from Her Bad Catarrh Trouble

RELIEVED BY PLANT JUICE

"I was growing more deaf from catarrh every day but Plant Juice has cleared up the trouble to such an extent that once again I can hear the church bells ring and the clock strike."

MRS. J. W. GOOLEY

This was the statement of Mrs. J. W. Gooley, of 901 La Grange street, Toledo, a popular and well known lady of that city during a recent conversation with The Plant Juice Man.

"In addition to the catarrhal trouble," Mrs. Gooley continued, "I suffered from awful pains in my back and side and my stomach was in terrible condition. I bloated so badly that I would be compelled to unloosen my clothing to ease the pain and suffering."

"Since I have taken Plant Juice, those pains in my back and side have entirely disappeared. In fact Plant Juice has improved me generally but the most surprising thing is the way it has relieved my catarrh because I can hear the clock strike and the church bells ring now whereas before, I was growing more deaf each day."

"I am so thankful to Plant Juice and gladly recommend it to everybody who suffers as I did as a wonderful medicine and one that does all and more than is claimed."

Plant Juice is a natural medicine, being a combination of the juices of nature products, such as roots, herbs and leaves. It has been publicly recommended by many men and women living in all parts of this city and has proved beneficial in several thousand cases in this vicinity alone in just the past year.

Plant Juice is sold in Lima at Hunters' Drug Stores, 49 Public Square and Main and Wayne Sts.; also at Argonne Drug Store, opposite Post Office. — Adv.

COOLIDGE BEGINS MESSAGE

President Framing Momentous Document to Congress

POLITICAL FUTURE AT STAKE

Many Important Questions to be Dealt With

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — President Coolidge has begun actual work upon his message to congress and upon the results of his efforts even his closest friends acknowledge will depend to a considerable degree his political future. He is known to realize as much as do his friends, the importance of his first message and his first pronouncement of policies, and for that reason he expects to devote himself assiduously to work upon the document during the three weeks that intervene before the convening of congress. By agreement with his secretary, C. Bascom Sleep, the president will limit his daily appointments to only those of necessity and let nothing interfere with his work upon the message.

The groundwork necessary to the drafting of the message already has been done. Six days a week for three months Mr. Coolidge has been conferring with officials and private citizens respecting the proposals before the government. He has talked with experts in international affairs, with railroad executives, railway employees, farmers, labor leaders, bankers, editors, politicians and with just ordinary citizens. In nearly every case the one who conferred with the president had the same experience—the visit or presented his views and then was closely questioned by the president. The result is Mr. Coolidge has absorbed a lot of information on a lot of subjects.

The principal subjects to be treated in the message have become fairly well known to those who have followed the course of the president's mind and the nature of his conferences during the last three months. They embrace agricultural relief, taxation, transportation, merchant marine, government expenditures, immigration, reclamation and international affairs, the world court and the recent recognition conventions with Mexico. Three subjects would seem at this time likely to receive major consideration. They are agricultural relief, taxation and transportation. With respect to assistance to the farmers the president is expected by some to urge legislation to promote cooperative marketing and probably ask creation of an agency, or authorization for an existing agency to sell American farm products abroad.

The president's tax proposals most probably will follow the outline of those announced today by the treasury department, with such minor modifications as Republican leaders believe are advisable. The president has received much advice relative to consolidation of railroads and may urge legislation to that end. It is reasonable to expect that he will not give any measure of approval to the proposal that congress by its own action reduce freight rates on farm products inasmuch as the interstate commerce commission has instituted an inquiry to determine whether such rates can be lowered. The merchant marine recommendations will be guided by the advice of members of the shipping board and are expected to be along the line of encouraging private enterprise in ocean transportation. The present immigration law expires next June and President Coolidge has let it be known he will look to congress to maintain at least the present restriction.

FLIGHT IS POSTPONED BECAUSE OF WEATHER

WASHINGTON — The giant naval dirigible Shenandoah will not make its scheduled flight over New England today from its Lakehurst, N. J., base owing to unfavorable weather conditions. In notifying the navy from Lakehurst early today that the flight had been cancelled, Rear Admiral Moffett, chief of the bureau of aeronautics, said a wind of a velocity of between thirty and forty miles an hour, was blowing there at that time.

POWER OF THOUGHT WILL AID SELF DEVELOPMENT

Differences between the $5 a day man and the $5,000 a year man lies in the ability to think. Gertrude Alma Tiffany, psychologist, said Saturday. "Persons who will learn the secrets of self-development and who keep themselves physically fit and mentally poised, can double their earning power in only a few years," she said. A series of free lectures on the power of mind over body and the proper use of psychology by everybody will be given by her in the Crystal room of the Hotel Argonne beginning Monday night. They will last through the week.

U. S. DROPS FROM FIRST TO SIXTH AS SHIPBUILDER

WASHINGTON — The United States has dropped from first to sixth place among the shipbuilding nations of the world in the last four years the department of commerce states. Not only Great Britain and Germany but also Italy, France and the Netherlands are building more tonnage than the United States, according to returns for the quarter ended with September. World construction at the close of that quarter was smaller than at any time since the war and represents a decline of 165,000 gross tons in comparison with the quarter ended with June.

COLUMBUS — (United Press) — General enrollment of Ohioans in the American Red Cross for 1924 was urged today by Governor Donahey in a proclamation. "The efficiency and promptness of this great organization in affording relief to distressed humanity is well known and marks it as an institution highly deserving of support," the proclamation said. "Ohio has always faithfully performed its duties in all humane enterprises and I know its people will again enroll as members of the Red Cross for 1924." ### The Easiest Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely, and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and two or three more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have. You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail. Adv.

During the luncheon, the women were seated at small tables in the main dining room of the hotel. Fall flowers were used on the tables, while the cut cups, place cards and tallies were suggestive of Thanksgiving. Seven tables of bridge enjoyed in the lounge during the afternoon.

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

Dear Miss Smart:

In spite of the fact that the young men and women of your page recently said they should not go together, I remain unconvinced. I have several reasons for thinking this. In the first place, does it say in the Bible that boys and girls of this age should not go together? No, it does not. Then, in the second place, is there any law in our constitution which prohibits them from keeping company? We are easily sure there is not. Should young men and women be deprived of this pleasure, then, merely because of the whims and narrow-mindedness of their selfish and unreasonable parents? My answer is a decisive "No." What do you think, I'm a sophomore in high school. Am I far enough advanced? I am 14.

SOPHOMORE

MY goodness, what started you off on THAT tangent? You nearly scared me to death! I'm not used to being treated so roughly.

I think you're getting all stirred up about nothing at all, don't you? Remember that anybody ever agreed (on this page) that boys and girls shouldn't go about together. Maybe I did say that girls of 15 shouldn't have real, sure-nough beaux—I probably did, because that's my story and I'll stick to it. But I never said you couldn't all go around together and have a good time, did I? I'm so glad the Bible doesn't say boys and girls shouldn't be friends, and I'm equally glad the constitution doesn't forbid it, for I must stand by the constitution, and I'm afraid I'd have a difficult time doing it if the constitution had such silly laws. You don't REALLY think parents are selfish and unreasonable, do you? Maybe they do have whims—surely you wouldn't begrudge them a whim or two. And I'm sure your parents aren't narrow-minded, or you wouldn't be so broad-minded yourself. So you see what I think—I think a decisive echo to your "No." And yes I think you are quite far enough advanced.

Dear Miss Smart:

We are two girls, both age 14 years, who live in Delphos. We enjoy reading very much your column and wish you would help us solve our problem. It really isn't an awfully important one, but we have always wanted to know. When a girl wants to go to a friend's house or go any place, should she ask her mother or her father? If her mother says she can go and her father says she can't, what should she do? Don't you think the mother should govern the daughter and the father the son?

THANK YOU! I'm afraid that is something you must settle with your parents. I hardly think it should be dragged into any family controversy. In my opinion, mothers and fathers should agree in such matters, so that it will not be necessary for the children to decide which one to obey.

"Fastest Player I Ever Coached", Says Zuppke In Speaking Of "Red" Grange

(BY BILLY EVANS)

In Harold "Red" Grange, Illinois has one of the greatest halfbacks the west has housed in years.

If he continues at his present clip throughout the season there will be no keeping him off the All-Western eleven. Incidentally "Red" is entitled to much of the credit for the Illinois victory over the Big Ten team in the game played at Chicago on Saturday. On the following day it was easy for me to see why Zuppke, who is not inclined to enthusiasm, usually over-enthusiastic about handing out praise from Zuppke.

Quite a compliment coming from so famous a coach as Zuppke, who is not inclined to enthusiasm, usually over-enthusiastic about handing out praise from Zuppke.

Notre Dame's Fall Before Nebraska Most Surprising Incident Of Season's Play

NEW YORK—(United Press)—Cornell, Illinois, Syracuse and Michigan surviving another jolting week, occupy the heights of football as the season pulls into the third down stage.

These four great teams stand alone at the present time and it is not improbable that they will finish the season the way.

Notre Dame fell from the select group Saturday by falling down most surprisingly before Nebraska.

Yale also has dropped a notch by beating Maryland only 16 to 14.

Washington and Jefferson and West Virginia are undefeated among the eastern teams, but both have engaged in one tie game.

Cornell, leading the nation with 254 points stands as the greatest offensive team in the east and perhaps in the country while the Syracuse eleven holds the defensive honors by still possessing an uncrossed goal line.

One field goal scored by little William and Mary were the only points scored against Syracuse. If Syracuse is able to win the two remaining games on the schedule against Colgate and Nebraska, it will have a better title to the ranking than any other team.

Cornell which has played only two heavy games with Colgate and Dartmouth and has only the weak Penn eleven ahead.

Yale still stands as a strong team but even if the Elis beat Princeton and Harvard, it will not enter the race for Western Conference football honors.

The Illinois, by successive wins over Iowa, Northwestern, Chicago and Wisconsin, has only Ohio to overcome on November 24 to have a clean slate for the season and a place at the head of the conference list.

Michigan and Minnesota, the other two undefeated Big Ten teams, each have run against two other conference eleven and still have two remaining games.

By bits 10 to 0 victory over Wisconsin on Saturday, Illinois eliminated the previously undefeated Badgers from the group of championship contenders.

Michigan won from the U. S. Marines in a non-conference exhibition in Indianapolis, but lost to the U. S. Marines in the title race, Chicago defeated Indiana, 27 to 0 and Ohio State downed Purdue 32 to 0.

While Illinois takes on the non-conference Mississippi Aggies this coming Saturday, Michigan will tackle the defeated but still powerful Wisconsin team at Madison and Iowa and Minnesota will fight it out at Minneapolis in a contest that would affect the season's outcome should Minnesota fall before the Hawkeyes.

YALE-PRINCETON SATURDAY

NEW YORK—(Associated Press)—The Yale-Princeton battle at New Haven will be the main football attraction in the east next Saturday.

The results of last Saturday's battles caused realignment of expert judgment so far as the second of the "Big Three" tussles is concerned.

Maryland's sensational stand against Yale, in which it went down to defeat by 16 to 14, has caused backers of the blue and white to wonder if the form it attained in the one-sided victory over Army has been lost.

And Harvard's narrow triumph after its defeat by Dartmouth, has caused the experts to wonder how strong — or perhaps how weak — Princeton really is.

And those inclined earlier in the season to presage a big year for Yale in "Big Three" tradition are not so sanguine of a victory over Harvard in the ultimate game.

Cornell and Syracuse stand out as the big teams of the east, the West Virginia, Washington and Jefferson and St. Johns with them kept in the decrease number of victories to remain undefeated.

RED GRANGE IS A MASTER AT SHAKING PASSES

ONE OF THE HARDEST MEN TO TACKLE IN FOOTBALL

"FASTEST MAN I EVER COACHED" SAYS ZUPPKE

Knute Rockne—The Gridiron Magician

"Get Your Man" Is Rockne Axiom
Rockne Prefers the Offensive Teams
Football Elevens Are of Two Types

"Muscular co-ordination and football brains are the two greatest assets of any player who desires to star in football, particularly at Notre Dame," says Knute Rockne.

"Beef and brawn are not at all essential," asserts Rockne, "although they do have their place in certain systems. The featherweight has as much chance as the heavyweight in my scheme of football."

One has only to follow Rockne's Notre Dame eleven through several days of practice, and then see them in action in real competition to appreciate his size-up of the modern game.

"Give me a team composed of players who can think, thereby making use of their speed and natural physique, and I have no fear of conceding poundage. In the Army game, man for man, Notre Dame was outweighted from 15 to 20 pounds.

Notre Dame beat the Army because my players were able to out-think, out-manuever and out-speed their opponents.

"Next in importance is a real liking for the game. The player who loves the game is invariably a fighter, one who never quits."

Rockne likes the fighter. He insists that each player give his very best until the final whistle blows, regardless of the score.

Muscular co-ordination and football brains are the cardinal principles of Rockne's system. He dwells on them from the time the season opens until it closes.

Notre Dame's system of attack under Rockne is somewhat standardized, varying but little from year to year. Individual brilliancy is not sought.

Individual stars are subordinated to the team. Rockne is the master mechanic of football who welds the parts into the gridiron machine.

He adjusts and regulates as flaws begin to show in the inexperienced player. From time to time he adds a bit of polish here and there until he has his eleven in trim to start the season, a finished product.

Muscular co-ordination and football brains, there you have the fundamentals of Rockne's scheme of football.

The East End Indians lost the third of a five-game series to the Catalpa Indians Sunday at McKinley field by a 12-0 score.

The winners showed over touchdowns in the first and last periods, and had the ball in their opponents' territory for the greater part of the game.

The series now stands in favor of the Catalpas, who have won two games and lost one.

Wagoner took the oval over for a touchdown soon after the game began, and Holden intercepted a pass in the East Enders' territory for another touchdown with a few minutes left to play in the final quarter. The try for the extra point was unsuccessful in each case.

Guy played best for the losers. The Catalpas used Wright, L. Brown, Metz, Hartman, Fundum, Crumrine, Crouse, R. Wagoner, Holden, W. Thompson and J. Thompson.

The Indian Midgets, a team composed mostly of east end kids, had an easy time with the Pierce Street All Stars in a football game played at McKinley School field Saturday morning. The score was 36-0. It was the rubber game of a three-game series.

As A Matter of Fact

BY HARRY BRADBURY
Sports Editor

Californians are taking to Coursing, its becoming favorite pastime.

But its not original with California by a good many centuries. Its a classic of antiquity. In the time of Arrian, 150 A. D., it is mentioned in history.

There are two kinds of Coursing—Open, which may be described as an hazard pursuit of a hare after he has been discovered, and "Close-In," which course is determined by fixed boundaries.

The oldest Coursing club of which there is any record was established in England in 1776. The existing organization in that country is the Aitcar club, near Liverpool and was established in 1825.

The controlling body of the sport in America is the American Coursing Board, which principal meets are held in The Dakotas, Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa and Minnesota. In these states the hounds course the Jackrabbits, which is just about as swift as the wind and for hitting targets its about as expert as the official weathercock, and when the greyhound misses he not only misses by an inch, but before he can be cognizant of the fact, that he hasn't a hind leg in his mouth Mr. Jack is running in another direction a hundred feet away.

If Jackrabbits are scarce they select a hare after a coyote. It is a rough sport, both exciting and dangerous, often evolving a long chase over a rough country. But what sport is exciting without being rough and to some extent dangerous?

Our globe-trotter friend Billy Harrigan, conversant with the games of every phase of the sun says Coursing has got all sports beat off the board. And he's right. A horse race is as tame as a Quaker meeting compared to Coursing.

In England, the Aitcar holds its meets in

"Ruggles of Red Gap" Is Spontaneous Comedy

HARRY LEON WILSON'S highly successful and amusing novel, "Ruggles of Red Gap" has reached the screen as a James Cruze production for Paramount and it is safe to say that neither will the reputation of Cruze who directed the phenomenally successful "The Covered Wagon" suffer nor the thousands of readers of the novel be disappointed as the result of the picture. The picture is filled with laughs from start to finish and the material is not of the hackneyed sort. Nothing has been seen on the screen for a long time on uncouth country, the typical valet of an English gentleman and Ruggles' unsuccessful attempts to make Egbert a man of fashion and polish. It just couldn't be done. The laughs commence almost at the start and despite the fact that he does not portray the title role, Ernest Torrence in the role of Cousin

"Oh Dearie" Revue at the Orpheum

THE management of the New Orpheum theatre comes to the front this week with an attraction that is far above the average of musical comedy entertainment offered at the Market-st playhouse this season. "Oh Dearie" is the title of the extravaganza for the first half of the week and features that noted comedian Mike Sacks. The production comes direct from the Lyceum theatre, Pittsburgh, where it played as a road show attraction. Beautiful wardrobe and stage settings, tuneful music and a whirlwind of laughs all combine to make "Oh Dearie" enjoyable in the extreme. "Auction Night" will be a feature at the Wednesday night performance when a complete lady's outfit will be auctioned off by one of the beautiful girls in the chorus. The proceeds will go to charity. There will be a change of program on Thursday and special features throughout the entire week.

Elizabeth Spencer at Memorial Hall Tonight

MEMORIAL HALL will be the scene of a unique recital Monday evening when the E. S. Porter Son Co. introduce Miss Elizabeth Spencer, soprano, accompanied by Louis Collette, pianist and Harold Lyman, flutist, to a specially invited audience of music lovers. Miss Spencer was born in St. Louis but later moved to Denver where her father William Gilpin became Governor of Colorado. Study and operatic experience abroad, a mastery of foreign languages and varied and numerous appearances in concert and oratorio, have given Miss Spencer the reputation she enjoys and the success she so justly deserves. A few cards of admittance are still available and will be issued in order of application.

"So This Is London" at Faurot

George M. Cohan will present his great international comedy success, "So This Is London," at the Faurot Monday night. This is the play which Cohan produced in New York City in August 1922, at the Hudson Theatre and which ran through the season of twelve months closing in July, 1923. It is now playing to capacity in London, England, at the Prince of Wales Theatre and the reports are that it has scored as big a success over there as in America. The story of the play concerns an American millionaire who with his wife and son are paying their first visit to the British capital. He is one of those extremely patriotic persons, sometimes referred to in the public journals as "patrioters." Everything that he sees in England meets with his contempt and at every new adventure he exclaims, "So This Is London," hence, the title of the play. Much to his consternation he discovers that his son has fallen in love with an English girl and an international marriage is in prospect. The father, an old-fashioned British peer, who oband there is a pretty kettle of fish, until it is all straightened out in the end. The lesson conveyed amid gales of laughter, is, "see yourself as others see you," and it's a scream!

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Chronic coughs and persistent colds lead to serious lung trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and kills the germ.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by the medical fraternity as the greatest healing agency for the treatment of chronic coughs and colds and other forms of throat and lung trouble. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritations and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of chronic coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, catarrhal bronchitis and other forms of throat and lung diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or the flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter of how long standing is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Co., Atlanta, Ga.—Adv.
